

CO. NO.167/10 TC

Sub: Police Estt. – Separation of Investigation from Law & Order – Posting – Orders issued.

Ref: PHQ Circular No.5/2010 dtd 25-01-10.

01. As per GO (Rt) No.3069/2006/Home dtd 27.12.2006, Government have ordered that in accordance with the directions by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, it is necessary to separate Investigating Police from Law and Order Police to ensure speedier investigation, better expertise and improved rapport with the people, ensuring that there is full co-ordination between the two Wings. Government have accepted the suggestion and have directed that the system will be introduced in Thiruvananthapuram, Kochi, and Kozhikode Cities. Government have also ordered that the Personnel ear-marked for investigation shall not be diverted for other duties.

02. Sec 3 (A) of the Kerala Police Act stipulate the separation of the investigating Police from the Law and Order Police. In order to give effect to the direction of the Government in GO (Rt)No.3069/2006/Home dtd 27.12.2006 and in order to carry out the stipulations in Sec. 3 (A) of the Kerala Police Act.

In pursuance of the instructions of the DGP vide reference cited the following Police Officers/Personnel of each PS are posted to Investigating Wing w.e.f. 01.03.2010 as annexure appended and the following directions are issued for guidelines.

03. (a) The Investigating Wing shall be headed by an officer of the rank of Sub Inspector of Police who shall be designated as SI - IW. The Principal SI (SHO) will command all the staff of the police station, including those in the Investigating Wing. The personnel of the Investigating Wing shall be designated as ASI-IW, HC-IW and PC-IW.

(b) The Investigating Wing shall Investigate all cases reported in the Police Station except cases of traffic accidents, suo-moto seizure cases, other suo-moto cases requiring simple Investigation, cases of preventive arrests, and cases to be transferred from one Police Station to the other.

(c) The investigation of traffic accidents now done by the Traffic Police Station shall continue. In Vizhinjam and Kovalam Police stations this traffic offence will be investigated by the Law and Order Wing.

(P.T.O)

(d) Personnel of the investigating wing will not be taken for any station duty other than proportionate GD duty, proportionate process duty, proportionate station security duty, proportionate copying duty and proportionate court duty.

(e) Cases under Investigation as on 28-02-2010 will continue to be investigated by the original Investigation Officer and cases will not be transferred to the Investigating Wing, except for cases already pending with the individuals among them.

(f) Traffic cases and the type of cases excluded from the calculation of investigative Workload of the Station, will continue to be investigated by the officers in the Law and Order Wing.

(g) Investigating Wing can be taken for any anticipated Law and Order duty only by the Superintendent of Police. However, the Sub Inspector Of Police (SHO) of the Police Station can detail the members of IW under simultaneous information to Circle Inspector of Police, Assistant Commissioner of Police, and Commissioner of Police, can take them on duty for any natural calamity or any grave situation of Law and Order involving impending danger to life and of tremendous gravity which has arisen suddenly without notice.

(h) Early and prompt completion of investigation will be the duty of those in the Investigating Wing.

(i) The members of the Investigating Wing shall wear uniform on duty and shall keep the SHO continuously aware of their whereabouts and will move out of the station jurisdiction only with the sanction of the SHO.

(j) Every Investigative Officer in the Investigating Wing shall make themselves available over their mobile phones at all points of time.

(k) It shall be ensured that Case Diaries are recorded by the Investigating Wing Officers promptly.

04. Since every police station is going to have an Investigating Wing who will collect criminal intelligence also, the present crime squads if any kept by any Circle Inspector of Police, shall be abolished. The Circle Inspector of Police in charge of the Circle will verify the work done by each member of the Investigating Wing everyday by contacting every Investigating Officer everyday and by directly asking him what he has done.

05. The member of the Investigating Wing shall be bound by the station routine unless specifically exempted by the Principal Sub Inspector of Police on grounds to be state in the General Diary.

06. The Assistant Commissioner of Police of every Sub-division shall review the work of every member of the Investigating Wing in his jurisdiction at least once in a month. Similarly, the CIs shall review their work once every fortnight on the first Monday of the succeeding fortnight.

07. The SI in-charge of the Investigating Wing shall maintain records with regard to the properties seized in Crime-cases, etc. He shall also assist the SHO in the maintenance of Station Crime Records. The over-all responsibility will remain with the SHO.

08. Though the Investigating Wing has been established, there is absolutely no legal objection to any officer either from the Investigating Wing or from the Law and Order Wing, Investigating any case in an emergency or when the officer of the appropriate wing is not immediately available.

09. Any emergency situation shall immediately be attended to by the Officer who receives the information or the Police Officer at the spot. The same may later be informed to the competent officer of the investigating Wing or the Law and Order Wing as may be appropriate.

10. It is also clarified that member of the investigating Wing shall be competent to attend to any law and order situation also if the same arises in his presence. Members of the both the Wings will also be expected to attend to any traffic emergency or traffic accidents which take place in their presence while on duty, till a competent traffic officer attends to the matter.

11. The Principal SI of the station will exercise the over-all supervisory control over both investigating Wing and Law and Order Wing. He will also be responsible for giving adequate assistance to the Investigating Wing for arrest of accused, guarding of accused, etc. He will also be responsible for assigning cases to the individual members of the Wing and in deciding who shall investigate which case. Separate orders are being issued with regard to the supervisory responsibility and duties of the Principal SI with regard to the Investigation of cases.
